Reference Letter for Dr. George Yan

To whom it may concern:

George and I first met 12 years ago. He approached me as a client for his business consulting and I hired him immediately. We have since moved on to various relationships not only as a consultant but friend and business associate.

There are few people in this world that I can say I trust explicitly. George is one of them. In all the time I've known him, we've never had a written contract. We don't even shake hands, we just agree what the next project will be and he performs, with absolute integrity, diligence and timeliness.

I would not hesitate to recommend his services to anyone.

Yours sincerely,

Ronald H. Ball, C.E.O., Chairman
